APPENDIX A

SECONDARY MOTIONS

Subsidiary Motions

The seven subsidiary motions are used to help dispose of main motions while pending and are decided by Majority Vote or, if there is no objection, by Unanimous Consent. The motions are listed in order of precedence (rank) from highest (top) to lowest (bottom). All subsidiary motions outrank the main motion, which has the lowest rank of all and may only be voted on when no subsidiary motion remains. Any subsidiary motion that lies above the one being considered is in order, and any below it are out of order until the one being considered is disposed of.

MOTION	COMMON	USES PROCESS

May resume debate without motion to "take from table". When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote and is not debatable or amendable.
Close Debate (previous question)	End debate and vote immediately.	Can be decided informally by unanimous consent. When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote and is not debatable or amendable.
Limit or Extend Debate	Provide specific amount of time for discussion.	Can be decided informally by unanimous consent. When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote and is not debatable but is amendable.

Postpone Indefinitely

Avoid taking direct vote.

Requires seconder. Is debatable, but not amendable. Majority vote required.

Privileged Motions

The five privileged motions do not relate to pending business, but rather matters of such immediate and overriding importance that involve the meeting itself or the comfort of members that pending business can be interrupted and the matter decided, without debate, by Majority Vote. The privileged motions are shown in order from highest (top) to lowest rank. Privileged motions outrank all subsidiary motions and the main motion. Any privileged motion that lies above the one being considered is in order, and any below it are out of order until the one under consideration is disposed of.

MOTION	COMMON	USES PROCESS
Fix Time to Adjourn	Continue current meeting on another day (e.g. when a public hearing is not concluded).	Can be decided informally by unanimous consent. When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote, is amendable as to time and date, is not debatable.
Adjourn	End meeting.	Can be decided informally by unanimous consent. When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote, is not amendable or debatable.
Recess	Take a short break.	Can be decided informally by unanimous consent. When handled formally requires seconder, majority vote, is amendable as to time, is not debatable.

Call for Orders of the Day	Get meeting back on schedule.	Chair responds by enforcing the agreed upon schedule. By Majority Vote or Unanimous Consent, may deviate from adopted schedule.

Incidental Motions

Below are the most commonly used incidental motions that deal with questions of procedure.

By-L	COMMON	USES PROCESS
Point of Order	Enforce the rules. Is raised by a Member who believes a rule has been breached. Chair responds to the point raised by making a ruling as to whether the point is taken or not. Chair may opt to ask Council to make decision.
Appeal	Appeal the Chair's ruling on a matter to Council.	No seconder is required. The question "shall the Chair be sustained" is put to a vote immediately and without debate; Chair does not vote. Majority Vote or tie sustains Chair's decision.
Suspend the Rules	Allows Council to waive a rule of order for a specific purpose. Cannot be used to suspend any provisions from the Community Planning Act, Local Governance Act, or other applicable legislation (e.g. voting rules or conflict of interest).	Can be useful when the rules are proving too restrictive and a more flexible approach is needed (e.g. extending time limits for speaking). Motion may be handed by the Chair informally.
Division of Motion (resolution)	Divides a multi-part motion into separate motions.	Question of privilege, should not generally interrupt a speaker unless circumstances require. If member making a request, Chair can handle informally.

After debate begins, main motion belongs to assembly which may withdraw it by Majority Vote or Unanimous Consent.	"In light of new information, I withdraw the motion". OR "I request permission to withdraw the motion". Chair takes vote or confirms support through Unanimous Consent.
